

Aegon offer a new support service and an Easter sale

From Monday 10th April, Aegon are launching a new support service from cazden for all Business Protection customers in addition to their existing health and wellbeing services.

There is also an Easter sale running from 7th April – 5th May and includes all Level and Indexed, Whole of Life and Gift Inter Vivos policies which runs alongside changes to Income Protection rates.

So what's the new service?

cazden, can provide you with help and support if business protection customers need to replace key people within their business – either temporarily or on a permanent basis. They can also provide advice and guidance on all aspects of employment law. They can provide help and guidance on how to find replacement 'key' personnel – whether temporary or permanent including:

- Providing CVs of potential candidates;
- Providing advice and support when looking for a permanent replacement; and
- Support in writing job specifications, adverts and recruitment agency briefs; and
- Provide advice, guidance and support on all aspects of employment law via their employment helpline.

For further information on the new service or Easter sale please contact your Aegon BDM or visit their website.
