

LifeQuote supports WAY

Widowed & Young is a charity which helps men and women aged 50 of under who have become widowed. They provide peer-to-peer support from a groups of volunteers who themselves have been widowed young.

We have been supporting them since 2016 and believe strongly in what they are doing. We have a series of fundraising events coming up so please keep an eye out for how you can help.

Our aim is to make life simple, from the quoting and processing of protection through to the support services available when tragedy strikes.
