

Protection Review 2019

We are back at the 2019 Protection Review Conference in London's Landmark Hotel, 8:30 – 16:00 on Thursday 11th of July, 2019.

This year's conference theme is 'Collaboration' and there will be a number of exciting and engaging sessions including 'Mental Health & Underwriting', 'Hot Topics' and 'When Two Become One: Group and Individual Protection'.

Come and see us at the exhibitor area!

Mental Health Industry Research

Ahead of the conference in July, Protection Review have teamed up with Alea Risk to produce a short online questionnaire about industry attitudes around mental health and underwriting.

There are 12 quick questions and we would be grateful if you and as many relevant people in your organisation could complete the survey.

They will announce the results of the survey at the Protection Review conference.
